Jennifer Wheeler Named Interim Executive Director for Long Tom Watershed Council

Boise, ID – WRG Corporate Services is pleased to announce that president, Jennifer Wheeler, has been named Interim Executive Director for the Long Tom Watershed Council (LTWC) headquartered in Eugene, Oregon. Through a hybrid part-time work model, Wheeler will undertake an organizational assessment, manage day-to-day administration and support the staff of 14, work with the board of directors, participate in partner activities, and assist the nonprofit in preparing for the next executive director.

The Long Tom Watershed Council was founded in 1998 by a diverse group of stakeholders including farmers, foresters, anglers, businesses, scientists, and conservationists who responded to the opportunity to act locally and cooperatively to address land and water issues under the Oregon Plan for Salmon and Watershed. Its mission is to improve water quality and watershed condition in the Long Tom River Basin and surrounding drainages through education and collaboration among all interests, using the collective wisdom and voluntary action of community members.

“I am honored to serve in this interim capacity for the Long Tom Watershed Council. Not only does this organization provide leadership, support, and action for the partners and community of the watershed, but their focus on equity and indigenous inclusion are highly regarded by all,” said WRG Corporate Services president, Jennifer Wheeler.

Wheeler will also continue in her capacity as part-time executive director of the Idaho Oral Health Alliance.

WRG Corporate Services, LLC, provides flexible, customized assistance for nonprofit organizations including interim executive director leadership, board member training, and executive director coaching; creation of policies and documents that mirror best practices, and general assistance in bringing organization to a company or situation. As president, Jennifer Wheeler brings 30+ years of experience in alumni relations/higher education and nonprofit leadership. Jennifer’s strengths lie in her organizational planning, strategic thought processes, and ability to envision and implement projects or concepts. She is highly adept at big picture planning while paying keen attention to detail.
